

PROGRAMME

GLOBAL EVANGELISTS
FORUM

 RZIM
RAVI ZACHARIAS INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES

---

Mahlatse Mashua

Event Contribution: Host and MC

Mahlatse Mashua is currently the Director of Ravi Zacharias International Ministries (RZIM) in Africa and a member of the organization's global speaking team. As an itinerant speaker, he enjoys giving talks on several themes including the interface between Christian apologetics, justice, conflict resolution, and race relations.

David Fraser

Event Contribution: Racial Identity and Evangelism in Southern Africa

David Fraser is an RZIM Africa Adjunct based in Cape Town, South Africa. Outside of RZIM, David works for a software development company. David is interested in researching and speaking to subjects including the nature of personhood, the faithfulness and love of God in the face of suffering, science and faith (especially touching consciousness), and the idea of pluralism.

Mike Day

Event Contribution: The Importance of Apologetics for 21st Century Evangelism

Mike is currently a Senior Adjunct speaker for RZIM in Cape Town, South Africa. He is passionate about communicating the reasons for and relevance of the Christian worldview, particularly with respect to the historicity of Jesus and the Bible, identity, ethics, issues of mental health, and questions to do with suffering and meaning.

Dr Raphael Anzenberger

Event Contribution: Book interview; "(re)Discovering the Ministry of the Evangelist".

Raphael Anzenberger is an evangelist, speaker and author serving globally, with a passion to raise a new generation of young apostolic leaders. He is Director of RZIM.fr (RZIM for the French Speaking world), President of France Evangelisation and CEO of the Global Evangelists Forum. He serves as ambassador at large for the board of the Conseil National des Évangéliques de France (CNEF) and travels extensively as a consultant in evangelism, church planting and leadership. He is Adjunct Professor of Intercultural Studies at Columbia International University (USA) and teaches globally on evangelism, apologetics and missions.

Dr Youssef Saeed

Event Contribution: The Call to Evangelism

Youssef is a speaker and Operations Director with RZIM Middle East (CredoLogos). Youssef is a dentist by background and has studied at the OCCA in 2012-2013. He then returned to the Middle East to serve on the RZIM ME speaking team, a group of 5 under the leadership of Dr. Maher Samuel. He is passionate about teaching, evangelism and the cell group movement, and is invited to speak all across Egypt and the Middle East to talk about a range of subjects from the reliability of the Christian faith, evil and suffering, the doctrine of the fall to the relationship between science and religion, and atheism.

Ross Anderson

Event Contribution: Power through Weakness in the Evangel, the Evangelised and the Evangelist

Ross is the John Stott Lecturer in Bible & Ministry at George Whitefield College, Cape Town, South Africa. His dissertation included a semiotic analysis of the South African culture, the influence of modernity and post-modernity on that culture and the development of a contextual theology with particular focus on individualism, economism, relativism and the search for meaning.

Frank Retief

Event Contribution: Wisdom from Those Who Have Gone Before

Frank Retief started and served at St James Church, Kenilworth, Cape Town for 31 years. He retired from his position of Presiding Bishop of the Church of England in South Africa (now REACH SA) in 2010, and remains active in ministry through preaching, teaching, voluntary pastoral work and writing.

Pukuta Mwanza

Event Contribution: The Task of Evangelism in Southern Africa

Pukuta Mwanza is the Executive Director of the Evangelical Fellowship of Zambia (EFZ) a mother body of Christian denominations, local churches, Para church organizations, mission agencies and individuals. EFZ is a non-profit organization, which seeks to advance the Kingdom of God through advocating for social justice through networking at both national and international levels as well as encouraging community participation at grass root levels.

Tawanda Masango

Event Contribution: The Work of the Gospel and the State of the Church in Zimbabwe

Tawanda serves as a campus staff worker with FOCUS Zimbabwe. He is based at the National University of Science and Technology [NUST]. Tawanda has also been involved in setting up The Gospel Confederation of Zimbabwe [TGCZ] (<http://tgcz.co.zw>) which is a growing network of ministries committed to the centrality of the gospel.

Thobekile Ncube

Event Contribution: The Work of the Gospel and the State of the Church in Zimbabwe

Thobekile is Capacity Building Officer at Tearfund, and international relief organization. She has a heart to see the Church fight against injustice in Zimbabwe. She spends her time equipping church leaders and para-church organisation to respond effectively to issues of social justice. Thobekile is currently living in Harare.

Kyle Johnston

Event Contribution: Mental Health, Counselling and Self-care in the Life of the Evangelist

Kyle Johnston is a pastor and counsellor at Jubilee Community Church in Cape Town, South Africa. Kyle provides leadership and oversight to the counselling ministry and serves on the preaching team at Jubilee. Kyle completed his MA in Biblical Counselling through The Masters University in California. He is a certified biblical counsellor, a council member of the Biblical Counselling Coalition, and a visiting lecturer in Pastoral Counselling at George Whitfield College, a Theological College in Cape Town.

Dr Chris Warton

Event Contribution: Mental Health, Counselling and Self-care in the Life of the Evangelist

Chris has recently retired from working at Medical Schools as an anatomist, a calling which he has followed for 40 years, mostly at the University of Cape Town. This gave him a lot of contact with students and created many opportunities for ministry. Chris has been active in preaching, teaching and counselling. For 30 years he has been working part time in a Psychiatric clinic caring for patients with a variety of problems. He is seriously concerned about the level of depression and anxiety which goes unrecognized and untreated among those in ministry.

Victor Nakah

Event Contribution: 5 Priorities for Africa

Victor Nakah Victor is the is Mission to the World (MTW) international director for Sub-Saharan Africa. In addition to his primary ministry as MTW international director for Sub-Saharan Africa, Victor supervises master's and Ph.D. students attending South Africa Theological Seminary, teaches at the Africa Reformation Theological Seminary (Uganda), and is Extraordinary Researcher for North-West University.

Feroza Morris

Event Contribution: The Story of a Muslim Background Believer in South Africa

Feroza is a lecturer at Howard College in Durban. She is completing her PhD in hydroclimatology. Feroza was born into a Muslim home in Wentworth, Durban. Throughout her school career she was deeply passionate about and committed to strengthening her faith. She followed the practices of Islam with deep conviction, increasingly longing for forgiveness and an intimate relationship with Allah through good deeds and practices. "But because of His great love for [Feroza], God who is rich in mercy..."

---

We look forward to welcoming you to
GEF 2019!